2022 DC Early Educator Experience

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 2022
VIRTUALLY IN WASHINGTON, DC

As an early childhood educator, you give so much of yourself every day to support the learning and development of the District of Columbia's children. DC Early EdX, held during the D.C. Month of the Young Child, is a virtual event designed by educators for educators.

Take the day to decompress, connect with and learn from your peers, raise your voice, and celebrate the important role you play for children, families and the entire community. Whether you're an early learning practitioner, a teacher, an assistant teacher, an administrator, a director or a principal, there's something here for you!

- Earn professional development "clock hours" and learn new practices
- Practice advocacy skills and making your voice heard
- Expand your professional network
- Contribute to an exciting new initiative aimed at improving early childhood education in D.C.
- Celebrate yourself and your fellow early childhood educators
- Enjoy lunch provided by DC Early EdX through Uber Eats
- Win surprise giveaways!
